

ABOUT US

We are the sales representative of leading suppliers of professional broadcasting accessory, connector & cable products.

Having been established in 1999, this company first started with a retail store providing broadcasting products in Tehran. Later in 2003, it officially introduced itself under Darros Mehr brand name. Darros Mehr began importing professional broadcasting cables and connectors to Iran from Europe and North America in 2006.

Having put all the obstacles behind, Darros Mehr plays a significant role in the country's broadcasting market. Darros Mehr is now the sales & distribution representative of leading suppliers of professional broadcasting connector & cable products.
